Many years before you have a stroke or notice dementia, uncontrolled high blood pressure narrows your arteries, decreasing blood to your brain. If you’re a Black man 28–45, take charge of your health today by knowing your blood pressure number, eating healthy, and exercising. MINDYOURRISKS.NIH.GOV